ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

New Show Today-Keith Vaudeville and Triangle Pholoplays - Also Charlie Chaplin in His Latest Comedy, "The Vagabond."

There will be complete change of show at the Davis today and the management promises one of the fin-est all round bills of the season for the last half of this week. In the vaudeville the feature attraction is the Velde Troupe, who present a novel comedy offering called Capers In the Park. This is a big time headliner Park. This is a big time headliner and one of the troupe gives a clever impersonation of the famous Charlie Chaplin. The other act is Belle Davis, billed as the Queen of Song. This little lady is one of the best single acts now playing in vaudeville. In the photoplays the big attraction is Charlie Chaplin, the million dollar Charlie Chaplin, the million dollar comedian in his latest comedy. The Vugabond. In this picture Charlie is presented with a role of an intenerant musician who after a series of comic and nearly tragic adventures in the big city where he finds the comedian in his latest comedy. The Vagabond. In this picture Charlie is presented with a role of an intenerant musician who after a series of comic and nearly tragic adventures in the big city, where he finds the competition of the German City Bands and the hurdy-gurdles too much for him, decides to try country life. The Vagabond is claimed by critics throughout the country to be the most amusing Chaplin comedy that ever hase been produced.

There is also a corking funny two reel Keystone comedy with Chester Conklin as the star. It is called His First False Step, and is just one long and prochesic and proper transpars.

first False Step, and is just one long The Triangle feature is Lillian Gish, in the five part Fine Arts production, An Innocent Magdalene. The following is a short synopsis of the play: Colonel Railegh is an unreconstructed Southerner, proud of his ancestrated Southerner, proud of his ancestrated Southerner, proud of his ancestrated with a bitter harred of the newer families who have settled around him since the war. In this gloomy atmosphere, he has raised his handsome daughter, Dorothy, desirous that she may marry well and perpetuate the Releigh line. Into her life consecute the Releigh line, Into her life consecute the Releigh line, Into her life consecute the Releigh line. Into her life consecute the Releigh line, Into her life consecute the Releigh line. Into her life consecute the Releigh line, Into her life consecute the Releigh line, Into her life consecute the Releigh line. Into her life consecute the Releigh line into her hand, and when he is refused, clones with her, Finding she is so disappointed in his The Triangle feature is Lillian Gish.

Finding she is so disappointed in his friends, he tries to quit his old mode of living; but a blackmailing deterlive has him thrown into the peni-tentiary. Dorothy stands by him un-til another woman comes out of his past and tries to claim him. Then she leaves with her baby and goes home only to find that her father has disowned her. She is taken in by her old negro mammy. The Stewort, who has been grievously wronged, comes to the colonel to claim his wife. In a thrilling finish, he not only gets Dorothy, but reconciles her to her father.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

"The Woman's Law" to Be Shown Again Today - Other Interesting Photoplays.

The five reel Pathe feature entitled The Woman's Law, which made such a deep impression on yesterday's audience will be shown again today. It is a photoplay well worth seeing and is one that is having a big run throughout the country this summer. A very interesting edition of the Pathe News will be shown today as well as The Silent Hour, an excellent three reel comedy drama.

Tomorrow and Saturday a big picture bill has been arranged headed by Constance Collier in The Code of Marcia Gray, produced by the Oliver Morosco Photoplay company, and released on the Puramount programme. In the cast are Forrest Standing, Heien Eddy and others equally well known. On the bill, also, will be the eighth episode of The Mysteries of Myra, and a Napolian the Great and Saily His Mate comedy animal picture. The five reel Pathe feature entitled

AT THE BREED.

A very attractive programme will be shown at the Preed this afternoon and evening the feature of which is Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, in a five part Metro feature, Pennington's Choice. It is a beautiful story of the Canadian Northwest, and contains many thrilling climaxes. For Friday and Saturday the management of the Breed wish to call your attention to the extraordinary bill which will be presented at this popular playhouse, when Tyronne Power and Kathayn Williams will be seen in Thou Shalt Not Covert, a five reel speciauciar drama with a $50. speciauciar drama with a $50,-900 climax.

In addition to this the Breed will present Raymond Hitchcock in A Wonderful Wager, a three reel com-edy. This picture is exceptionally funny and has been a scream where-

ENTRY OF BRITISH CRUISER INTO CHESAPEAKE BAY Officially Reported to Navy Department by Commander of Louisiana.

Washington, July 28.—An official report on the entry of a British cruiser into lower Chesapeake Bay early yesterday morning reached the navy department today from the commander the battleship Louisiana through the Norfolk Navy yard. The despatch

"The commanding officer of the Louisiana reports that about 2:30 a. m., the 25th, while he was at anchor in Lynnhaven Bay and using his searchlight and signal lights and otherwise indicating that he was a man-of-war, he was passed by a vessel that was barely discernible for two man-of-war lights displayed aft.

"As this vessel passed the Louisiana she made the signal which read English cruiser." The vessel was then standing apparently up the channel toward Hampton Roads. The lights disappeared very soon after the signal was made and nothing was seen of her, though the Louisianaa kept a bright
